Do not call to mind the former things, or consider things of the past. Behold, I am going to do something new, now it will spring up; Will you not be aware of it? I will even make a roadway in the wilderness, rivers in the desert. (Is 43:18-19)

➔ What does “in transition” _____ like?

Do not call to mind the former things, or consider things of the past. Behold, I am going to do something new, now it will spring up; Will you not be aware of it? I will even make a roadway in the wilderness, rivers in the desert. (Is 43:18-19)

➔ Born _____... and _____... and _____

My children, with whom I am again in labor until Christ is formed in you (Gal 4:19)

➔ The _____ of transition

- When it's time – it's time

While they were there, the time came for her to give birth. (Luke 2:6)

But when the fullness of the time came, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, so that He might redeem those who were under the Law (Gal 4:4-5a)

- There's a reason they call it labor

(Jesus speaking) Whenever a woman is in labor she has pain, because her hour has come; but when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy that a child has been born into the world. (John 16:21)

- Your strength BEFORE transition will make it easier

The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife can get to them.” (Exodus 1:19)

- God Himself is our help in transition

“Shall I bring to the point of birth but not give delivery?” says the Lord. “Or shall I who gives delivery shut the womb?” says your God. (Is 66:9)
